17. Clarification of Bids

During evaluation of bids, the purchaser may, at its discretion, ask the bidder for a clarification of its bid. The request for clarification and the response shall be in writing and no change in prices or substances of the Bid shall be sought, offered or permitted.

18. Preliminary Examination

The purchaser will examine the Bids to determine whether they are complete, whether any computational errors have been made, whether required sureties have been furnished, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the bids are generally in order.

Arithmetical errors will be rectified on the following basis. If there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words will prevail and the bid shall stand corrected to that effect. If the supplier does not accept the correction of errors, its bid will be rejected. The purchaser may waive any minor infirmity or non-conformity or irregularity in a bid, which does not constitute a material deviation, provided such a waiver does not prejudice or affect the relative ranking of any bidder. If there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the lowest of the two shall prevail.

Prior to the detailed evaluation, pursuant to Clause 23, the Purchaser will determine the substantial responsiveness of each bid to the Bidding Documents. For purposes of these Clauses, a substantially responsive bid is one, which confirms to all the terms and conditions of the Bidding Documents without material deviations. Deviations from or objections or reservations to critical provisions such as those concerning Performance Security, Applicable Law and taxes and duties will be deemed to be a material deviation. The purchaser's determination of a bid's responsiveness is to be based on the contents of the bid itself without recourse to extrinsic evidence.

If a bid is not substantially responsive, it will be rejected by the Purchaser and may not subsequently be made responsive by the Bidder by correction of the non-conformity.

19. Evaluation and Comparison of Bids

The Purchaser will evaluate and compare the bids previously determined to be substantially responsive, pursuant to clause 21.3.

20. ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION OF BIDS:

The Commissioner, Department of Public Instruction, Bangalore reserves the right to accept or reject any bid and to annul the bidding process and reject all bids at any time prior to award of contract, without thereby incurring any liability or any obligation to inform the affected bidder or bidders of the grounds for the said action. Any Bid with incomplete information is liable for rejection.

For each category of pre qualification criteria, the documentary evidence is to be produced duly attested by the contractor, serially numbered and enclosed with the bids. If the documentary proof is not enclosed for any/all criteria the Bid is liable for rejection.

If any information given by the contractor is found to be false / fictitious, the contractor will be debarred for 3 years from participating in any other tenders of Govt. of Karnataka and will be black listed.
